INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Thank you for choosing to submit your article to us. These instructions will ensure we have everything required so your article can move through peer review, production and publication smoothly.

Word Limits

A typical research article for this journal should be between 6000 and 8000 words, inclusive of tables and references.

Policy commentaries should not exceed 2,000 words and book reviews 1,500 words.

Style Guidelines

Please use British English consistently throughout your manuscript.

Structure

Your article should be compiled in the following order: title page; abstract (200 words); 3-6 keywords; main text introduction, materials and methods, results; acknowledgements; declaration of interest statement; references; appendices (as appropriate).

The introduction should contain the description of the problem, basic concepts, frame of issues, provide the goal of the research and focus on reviewing the literature on the issue. Subsequent chapters should further elaborate on what is the thrust of the undertaken research to prove (or disapprove) the basic premise. The paper should close with conclusions, which should tie together the views presented in the previous sections of the work.
